

sqlite3_realloc

unixShmMap

graph LR; unixShmMap --> sqlite3_realloc

The diagram consists of two rectangular boxes. The box on the left is shaded gray and contains the text 'sqlite3_realloc'. The box on the right is white and contains the text 'unixShmMap'. A dark blue arrow points from the right side of the 'unixShmMap' box to the left side of the 'sqlite3_realloc' box, indicating a dependency or relationship between the two.
